

NWRH

Operating in over 50 communities across rural, regional and remote Queensland

Why did you Join NWRH?

I joined NWRH because I was looking for a change in my career and wanted a role where I could make a meaningful difference by supporting people in the community.

What does your role Involve Day to day?

My day-to-day work includes scheduling visits and organising bus bookings for the CADS team, as well as assisting with general administrative tasks.

What has been your biggest achievement or proudest moment at work?

My proudest moment has been being able to work alongside and support such an amazing CADS team.

What has your career pathway looked like?

I started in administration and am now working towards furthering my studies with a Bachelor of Healthcare Management to continue growing my career in the health sector.

What do you love about NWRH?

I enjoy working at NWRH because it's a supportive workplace that allows me to contribute to helping others.

What advice would you give to someone new starting at NWRH?

I would encourage them to ask questions, learn from their team, and take the time to fully understand the services offered.

What do you love about your location?

I love the peaceful environment and the strong sense of community in Mount Isa.

What do you enjoy doing outside of Work?

Outside of work, I enjoy spending time with my husband, three kids, and friends. I also love watching the Penrith Panthers play.
